DRESS GUIDELINES:

HFC seeks above all to serve Our Lord Jesus Christ first in all our programs and activities. We believe, as St. Paul says, that we are temples of the Holy Ghost (1 Cor. 6:19) and that Christian modesty is a fruit of the Holy Ghost's presence in us (Gal. 5:22-23). In a spirit of charity and to show respect towards one another, we ask that all camp families observe the following dress guidelines when participating in our summer activities. Thank you for helping us maintain a Catholic atmosphere during summer camp. We're happy to answer any questions you may have.

1) Swim Attire: (If we get a certified life guard)

For Girls/Young Ladies – EITHER t-shirt and shorts/swim trunks with coverage down to the knee over a bathing suit OR, for those interested, here are a couple of links to Web sites that offer modest swimwear for girls/ladies: www.meanttobemodest.com; www.wholesomewear.com.

For Boys/Young Men – swim shirt/t-shirt and swim trunks.

2) Camp Attire: comfortable, modest clothing for all indoor programs as well as for outdoor games and activities.

For Girls/Young Ladies – skirts or jumpers that reach below the knees with shirts/blouses rather than shorts, tank tops, or low-cut/sleeveless garments.

For Boys/Young Men – knee-length shorts and golf shirts/plain t-shirts —no muscle shirts or cut-off shirts, please.

Rules for Holy Family Camp

Here are some rules you need to read and review with your family. Holy Family Camp is an opportunity for traditional-minded Catholics to meet, socialize, learn, and enjoy nature and our Catholic faith. But this must be done in a safe and responsible environment. Here are some guidelines that MUST be followed.

1. No food in the cabins. This is to prevent bears from coming into your cabin. If you wish to have food, leave it in the kitchen or your locked car.
2. In the interest of safety and well being; parents should be aware of the whereabouts of their older and younger children at all times. There will be some activities that may have some natural and man made hazards.
3. Please don't have your children bring any, electronic games, I-Pods, computers, cell- phones etc. These devices detract from the reason we are here; to meet and talk to others while enjoying healthy common activities in God's nature and beauty.
4. No weapons of any kind are permitted. This includes but not exclusive to guns, air guns, knives, bow and arrows, and sling shots. Pocket knives will be permitted, but must be inspected by the camp director upon registration.
5. Get involved. It's more enjoyable when we do things together. We are faithful Catholics and we want the camp to grow and flourish and be an undertaking that God will be pleased with. Your help is crucial for the success of your camp.
6. Children should not be dropped off and left unaccompanied by a parent.
7. All campers will be assigned an age- appropriate camp chore during their stay.

RISK

Many activities at camp at Hickory Run State Park involve a known and reasonable risk. We do everything possible to provide a safe environment for our campers. In the event of an unforeseen or reasonably unpredictable circumstance, it should be known by you and your child's voluntary participation in an activity, that you are aware of and have acknowledged the existence of a risk and that you clearly share in its assumption.
